

FORTERRA PLC - MODERN SLAVERY ACT STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “Act”) and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31st December 2016.

To comply with the Act, this Statement is published on our website(s); www.forterraplco.co.uk and www.forterra.co.uk and will be reviewed, updated and published annually.

We are proud of the steps we have taken to combat slavery and human trafficking and are committed to improving our practices.

ORGANISATION’S STRUCTURE

We are a leading producer of manufactured masonry products namely, clay bricks, aircrete, aggregate blocks and bespoke products for the Construction sector. We own Forterra Building Products Limited together with its subsidiary undertakings (the “Group”). The Group has its head office is located in Northampton and we have c1600 employees at 18 facilities throughout the UK with an annual turnover of c£290m.

OUR BUSINESS

Our business is organised into two distinct business units:

1. Brick and Block; and
2. Bespoke Products.

OUR SUPPLY CHAINS

Our supply chains include:

1. Utilities;
2. Expanded Polystyrene;
3. Cement;
4. Aggregates;
5. Steel; and
6. Pulverised Fuel Ash.

The vast majority of Forterra’s suppliers (and their supply chain) are based in the UK and as a result those products and materials are largely sourced from the UK alone. Forterra also uses suppliers both inside and outside the EU and as such recognises that some countries in its supply chain may present an increased risk of modern slavery.

In response to any risks faced by supplies sourced from the UK, as well as in the context of the risks arising from other countries, Forterra has in place various policies and procedures to tackle modern slavery in its supply chain as further set out in this Statement.

OUR POLICY ON SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy (the “Policy”) reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Forterra’s standard conditions of purchase require suppliers, and relevant third parties, to comply with the Act, and our Suppliers Code of Practice also includes specific provisions in relation to compliance with the Act.

In addition Forterra has its own Code of Business Conduct whereby Forterra and its employees are committed to comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

DUE DILIGENCE PROCESSES FOR SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Forterra is implementing a new supplier platform in Q2 2017 whereby suppliers are assessed against wide ranging criteria for approval to be a named supplier, including compliance with the Act and our Suppliers Code of Practice. The assessment dictates that each supplier has to be approved by the Purchasing Manager.

OUR VALUES AND ETHICS

We have zero tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking in accordance with our Policy.

All of our production facilities are certified to BES 6001 – Responsible Sourcing of Construction Products which further demonstrates our commitment to ethical standards.

Forterra also has in place Whistleblowing procedures and an anonymous hotline (MySafeWorkplace) for reporting any incident of non-compliance with applicable laws and policies. To date no incidents have been reported that are in contravention of the Act and or our Policy.

TRAINING

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to our staff which forms part of the induction process for all new joiners.

Stephen Harrison
Chief Executive
Forterra plc
Date: 16/06/2017